

NEWS BRIEFS

Day's wrap: Mandarin Oriental, Jimmy Choo, Secoo, Douglas Elliman, Volkswagen and Nordstrom

January 2, 2019

Le Petit Chef at Mandarin Oriental, Marrakech. Image courtesy of Mandarin Oriental

By STAFF REPORTS

Luxury Daily's live news from Jan. 2:

Mandarin Oriental launches digitally enhanced dining

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

Mandarin Oriental, Marrakech in Morocco is allowing diners to trace the journey of Marco Polo from the property's in-house restaurant.

Click here to read the entire story

Jimmy Choo sparkles with personalization in the new year

Capri Holdings' Jimmy Choo has introduced a bespoke service with partner Swarovski for customers to further glam out their shoes.

Click here to read the entire story

Secoo looks to Oracle for streamlined business

Chinese ecommerce site Secoo is working with automation system Oracle to upgrade the company's technology and streamline all of its management systems.

Click here to read the entire story

Douglas Elliman's remaining shares go to Vector Group

Real estate firm Douglas Elliman will be wholly controlled by its parent company, Vector Group, as the latter buys the remaining shares.

Click here to read the entire story

Volkswagen future-proofs with mobile charging station

German automotive group Volkswagen is looking to make electrification in vehicles more accessible with a mobile charging station.

Click here to read the entire story

Nordstrom co-president passes away after lymphoma diagnosis

Department store chain Nordstrom has issued a statement announcing the unfortunate passing of its cofounder.

Click here to read the entire story

---

© 2020 Napean LLC. All rights reserved.

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.