

NEWS BRIEFS

Esté Lauder, Neiman Marcus, Ralph Lauren, Versace, NRF and Loewe – Live news

February 6, 2019

Bella Hadid models the Kith x Versace collection. Image courtesy of Kith

By STAFF REPORTS

Luxury Daily's live news from Feb. 5:

Ralph Lauren's Q3 revenues rise 5pc

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

U.S. fashion label Ralph Lauren's holiday quarter sales grew thanks in part to investments in marketing and digital.

Click here to read the entire article

NRF forecasts retail growth amid turbulent times

The National Retail Federation is projecting retail sales growth in 2019 will be between 3.8 and 4.4 percent, as a healthy economy is able to make up for geopolitical upheaval and trade tensions.

Click here to read the entire article

Versace links with Kith for co-branded collection

Italian fashion label Versace is working with streetwear label Kith for a collaborative collection that leverages both of their perspectives on style.

Click here to read the entire article

Esté Lauder's skincare sales drive record quarter

Beauty group Esté Lauder Companies' quarterly sales topped $4 billion for the first time in the second quarter of the 2019 fiscal year.

Click here to read the entire article

Neiman Marcus hires from LVMH, Apple to further customer-centric strategy

Retail group Neiman Marcus is adding to its executive team with the appointment of David Goubert as executive vice president, stores and Ginger Mollo as senior vice president, retail experience for the West Coast.

Click here to read the entire article

Loewe leans on craftsmanship for Lunar New Year push

Spanish fashion house Loewe is highlighting its dedication to craft by showcasing time-tested artisan skills in a Chinese New Year content campaign.

Click here to read the entire article

© 2020 Napean LLC. All rights reserved.

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.