

NEWS BRIEFS

Kering, Coty, Selfridges, Rolls-Royce, Tiffany and Dow Jones – Live news

February 13, 2019

Gucci's revenues topped 8 billion euros last year. Image credit: Gucci

By STAFF REPORTS

Luxury Daily's live news from Feb. 12:

Rolls-Royce expands apprenticeship program

British automaker Rolls-Royce is growing its apprentice class, bringing the total number of candidates to a record 31.

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

Click here to read the entire article

JAB seeks greater stake in Coty

Investment firm JAB is looking to up its stake in beauty group Coty, citing the company's "long-term potential."

Click here to read the entire article

Selfridges invites consumers to cozy up for Valentine's Day

British department store chain Selfridges is looking to help shoppers make new friends with the opening of an intimate bar that seats six.

Click here to read the entire article

Kering's profitability reaches record high in 2018

French luxury group Kering's consolidated revenues were up 26.3 percent in 2018, as its key fashion houses saw double-digit increases.

Click here to read the entire article

Wall Street Journal parent rebrands sponsored content division

Dow Jones' brand marketing division WSJ Custom Studios is marking a move towards more data-driven services with a rebrand.

Click here to read the entire article

Tiffany, British Vogue series delves into style

Jeweler Tiffany & Co. is teaming up with Condé Nast's British Vogue to explore the topics of fashion and film.

Click here to read the entire article

© 2019 Napean LLC. All rights reserved.

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.