

NEWS BRIEFS

Day's wrap: Protravel International, Versace, Rosewood, Financial Times, Gucci and JennAir

March 21, 2019

Gardens by the Bay Conservatories. Image courtesy of Protravel International

By STAFF REPORTS

Luxury Daily's live news from March 21:

"Crazy Rich Asians" inspires \$30K Singapore journey

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

Travel advisory Protravel International is catering to consumers' growing interest in visiting Singapore with a package that targets affluent Americans.

Click here to read the entire story

Versace exhibits latest home furnishings line in immersive launch

Italian fashion label Versace is using a special exhibit to funnel its iconic style into home goods.

Click here to read the entire story

Rosewood Hong Kong opens its doors with focus on personal service

Hospitality group Rosewood Hotels has officially opened its doors to its Hong Kong location, which it states is the most complete expression of the brand.

Click here to read the entire story

Financial Times' magazine supplement editor steps down

The Financial Times has announced a shift in its magazine supplement, How To Spend It, as its longtime editor steps down.

Click here to read the entire story

Gucci brings back a musical ambassador for its fine jewelry

Italian fashion label Gucci is hoping to embody a free-spirited bohemian image for its latest jewelry campaign that brings back ambassador Florence Welch.

Click here to read the entire story

JennAir to open residency in New York's A&D Building

Whirlpool's JennAir appliance brand is furthering its foothold in luxury with a new concept shop, permanently located in Architects & Designers Building.

Click here to read the entire story

Click here to read the morning newsletter

Subscribe now for access to 80,000+ articles

© 2020 Napean LLC. All rights reserved.

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.