Travelers can now choose from 54 different itineraries for next year's winter season, including trips to the Caribbean, Asia, South America and Australia and New Zealand. The trips include voyages on the new ship Silver Moon, sister ship to Silver Muse, launching in August 2020.

Travel the world

Customers booking itineraries for the 2020 and 2021 winter season will receive free economy flights to make their travel simplified. Guests can upgrade to business class for $199 per leg.

The itineraries offer one-of-a-kind travel experiences such as visiting the rain forests of St. Lucia and immersing themselves in Cuban culture.

"Feedback on our new winter 2020/2021 voyages has been exceptional," says Barbara Muckermann, chief marketing officer at Silversea, in a statement. "Once again, we have pushed boundaries to unlock unique travel experiences for our guests, in the world's most amazing destinations.

"From iconic to exclusive, intrepid to relaxed, the range of experiences on offer with Silversea perfectly caters for the discerning tastes of our distinguished guests."

The itinerary includes 46 destinations in the Caribbean, including rarely visited ports such as Jost Van Dyke, Bequia and Mayreau, 58 locations in Asia and 49 destinations in Australia and New Zealand. For Silver Moon's first year, the ship will sail to 55 destinations in South and Central America from January 2021 to April 2021.

Complimentary wines and spirits will be available onboard the ships, as part of Silversea's ongoing Project Invictus, along with specialty coffee, bottled water, juices, a personalized in-suite bar, 24-hour dining service and complimentary Wi-Fi.

The luxury cruise line has officially been acquired by Royal Caribbean, as the former invests a two-thirds stake in the company.

Royal Caribbean received final approval from regulators as it took control of 67 percent of Silversea last August. The acquisition brings Royal Caribbean into the luxury cruising world, rounding out all of its sectors (see story).
