

NEWS BRIEFS

Theresa May, Giambattista Valli, Burberry, Safilo, Audi and Este Lauder – Live news

May 28, 2019

Burberry has taken over Saks' windows for its Monogram collection. Image courtesy of Burberry

By STAFF REPORTS

Luxury Daily's live news from May 24:

Audi aims to lead sustainable premium mobility through transformation

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

German automaker Audi is putting the focus on carbon neutrality through greater efforts surrounding electric cars and ownership alternatives.

Click here to read the entire article

Safilo focuses on wholesale business with Solstice sale

Eyewear maker Safilo is selling its U.S.-based Solstice retail business to Fairway LLC.

Click here to read the entire article

Burberry brings Monogram collection to Saks with takeover

British fashion house Burberry is teaming up with department store chain Saks Fifth Avenue to celebrate the launch of its heritage-focused Monogram collection.

Click here to read the entire article

Giambattista Valli brings couture perspective to more consumers with H&M

French couture house Giambattista Valli is the latest luxury label to collaborate with fast-fashion retailer H&M, bringing its designs to a broader audience.

Click here to read the entire article

Theresa May resigns as prime minister amid Brexit struggles

Following difficulties to get a Brexit deal passed in Parliament, Theresa May is stepping down as prime minister of the United Kingdom.

Click here to read the entire article

Este Lauder hopes to combat deforestation in Indonesia

Beauty group Este Lauder is supporting sustainability in production, with a partnership to promote palm oil and palm derivatives.

Click here to read the entire article

© 2020 Napean LLC. All rights reserved.

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.