Hawaiian regional cuisine expert chef Peter Merriman is working with the private aviation platform to provide unique experiences for XOJet's preferred members. Private dining and special priority restaurant features are included in the partnership.

Culinary experiences

XOJet Elite Access and Preferred members will now be able to experience Hawaii's culinary offerings on an unparalleled level.

Merriman's is allowing members to choose between two experiences. The first experience includes a private dinner and farm tour with Chef Merriman, showing off farmers, fisherman and ranchers, available on a limited basis.

For the second experience, XOJet members will receive priority reservations at all of Merriman's locations throughout the state of Hawaii such as Honolulu, Kapalua, Kauai and Waimea. They will also receive a welcome drink, touting the famous Merriman's Mai Tai, a special middle course and personal greeting from the restaurant's head chef.

Merriman's is known for its commitment to local produce, farmers, ranchers and the economy of Hawaii.

The private aviation firm also recently partnered with a new location to serve travelers interested in adventure outdoors with preferred solutions.

Luxury ranch resort and glamping destination The Resort at Paws Up now provides XOJet members with special VIP treatment and access to the location's excursions and services. More than 17 United States cities now have direct access via private flights to the location, including Boston, Chicago, Dallas, Houston, Miami, New York and Palm Beach (see story).
