

NEWS BRIEFS

Day's wrap: Saint Laurent, Maserati, HBC, Crystal Cruises, Tod's and Lexus

June 10, 2019

Zo Kravitz for Saint Laurent, spring/summer 2018. Image credit: Saint Laurent, photo by David Sims

By STAFF REPORTS

Luxury Daily's live news from June 10:

Saint Laurent looks at possible production facility in Italy

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

French fashion label Saint Laurent is rumored to be looking into a new hub in Tuscany, Italy.

Click here to read the entire story

Maserati blends culture, auto to celebrate a double anniversary

Italian automaker Maserati is focusing on China with a special tour celebrating local culture for its 15th anniversary in the region.

Click here to read the entire story

Hudson's Bay Company looks into reorganization

Retail group Hudson's Bay Company is reorganizing its business structure, as it sells off a joint venture project and looks into the possibility of going private.

Click here to read the entire story

Crystal Cruises continues sustainability with plastic straw ban

Luxury cruise line Crystal is doing its part to reduce plastic waste and ocean pollution with the banning of plastic straws, fleet wide.

Click here to read the entire story

Tod's hopes to capture unicorn with limited-edition

Italian fashion brand Tod's is looking to gain clout in China through a partnership with macro influencer Mr. Bags.

Click here to read the entire story

Lexus returns to US Open for 13th year with special experiences

Toyota Corp.'s Lexus is tapping into the affluent community of golfing with an on-site experience at the United States Open Championship.

Click here to read the entire story

Click here to read the morning newsletter

© 2020 Napean LLC. All rights reserved.

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.