

NEWS BRIEFS

Kenzo, Dior, Coty, TCS, Louis Vuitton and Rosewood – Live news

July 2, 2019

Louis Vuitton X is being held in Beverly Hills. Image credit: Louis Vuitton

By STAFF REPORTS

Luxury Daily's live news from July 1:

Louis Vuitton gets artsy in Beverly Hills exhibit

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

French fashion label Louis Vuitton is looking back on some of its artistic collaborations through an exhibit in Beverly Hills, CA.

Click here to read the entire article

Coty turnaround plan includes new president of luxury brands

Beauty group Coty is launching a turnaround plan aimed at establishing a path towards growth, which includes a new leadership structure.

Click here to read the entire article

TCS World Travel ramps up custom offerings through merger

Tour operator TCS World Travel is merging its operations with travel consultancy Travcoa, combining their specialties to deliver personalized luxury experiences.

Click here to read the entire article

Dior to end licensing deal with Safilo next year

Eyewear maker Safilo and Dior are ending their 20-year licensing partnership when the contract expires next year.

Click here to read the entire article

Kenzo appoints Felipe Oliveira Baptista as creative director

French fashion house Kenzo has named Felipe Oliveira Baptista as its new creative director, succeeding Carol Lim and Humberto Leon.

Click here to read the entire article

Rosewood reorganizes internal team for strategic growth

Hospitality group Rosewood Hotel Group is implementing a bullish strategy for strategic growth with the appointment of new leadership.

Click here to read the entire article

© 2020 Napean LLC. All rights reserved.

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.