Four Seasons releases new itineraries for \$163K jet trips

For some of the world's wealthiest, checking off their travel bucket list just got easier. In April, Four Seasons Hotels & Resorts announced it was in the process of converting a narrow-body Airbus A321LR aircraft to replace its current plane, which premiered in 2015 for lavish group excursions at $150,000 or more per ticket. This new jet has room for 48 passengers, larger bathrooms, more social areas, and interactive workshops onboard, says Bloomberg.
