

NEWS BRIEFS

Gucci, Mandarin Oriental, Fendi, Givenchy and auto standards Live news

September 19, 2019

Rapper Nicki Minaj is working with Fendi on a capsule collection. Image courtesy of Fendi

By STAFF REPORTS

Luxury Daily's live news from Sept. 18:

Gucci puts lens on self-expression in eyewear ads

Italian fashion house Gucci is celebrating individuality through an eyewear effort that stars two performers.

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

Click here to read the entire article

Mandarin Oriental continues expansion push in China

Hospitality chain Mandarin Oriental Hotel Group is adding to its footprint in mainland China with a new property in Nanjing expected to open in 2022.

Click here to read the entire article

Fendi enlists rap queen for next collaborative capsule collection

Italian fashion house Fendi is partnering with one of hip-hop's biggest stars for a fierce capsule collection as part of the FF Series.

Click here to read the entire article

Givenchy shares surreal passages in fall/winter effort

French couture house Givenchy is exploring the wearability and multi-faceted nature of high-end fashion in a new fall campaign.

Click here to read the entire article

Trump cancels stringent California emissions standards

U.S. President Donald Trump announced his administration's intentions to revoke a waiver that allowed the state of California to set its own vehicle emissions standards, which were stricter than the those of the federal government.

Click here to read the entire article

© 2020 Napean LLC. All rights reserved.

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.