

NEWS BRIEFS

Day's wrap: Miu Miu, Kering, Rimowa, Peninsula, Balmain and luxury watches

September 24, 2019

Kylie Jenner and Balmain creative director Olivier Rousteing. Image credit: Kylie Cosmetics

By STAFF REPORTS

Luxury Daily's live news from Sept. 24:

Miu Miu's handbags turn confidants in humorous films

Prada's Miu Miu is exploring the intimate relationship between a woman and her handbag in a surreal series.

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

Click here to read the entire article

Kering commits to carbon neutrality in latest sustainability move

French luxury group Kering is making another push towards sustainability by announcing its plans to become carbon neutral across its supply chain.

Click here to read the entire article

Rimowa brings travel twist to salon pop-up

German luggage house Rimowa is engaging fashion and beauty lovers with a special pop-up during Paris Fashion Week.

Click here to read the entire article

Peninsula explores sustainability themes as traveling exhibit lands in Paris

The Peninsula Hotels is welcoming a contemporary art exhibit to its Paris property as the hospitality group continues its global art initiative.

Click here to read the entire article

Balmain recruits Kylie Jenner for cosmetics collaboration

French fashion label Balmain is enlisting makeup mogul Kylie Jenner for a special Paris Fashion Week collaboration.

Click here to read the entire article

Younger consumers drive fine timepiece growth as watch sales hit $9.5B

Propelled by smartwatches, total watch sales jumped 17 percent in the 12 months ended June 2019, according to data from NPD Group.

Click here to read the entire article

Click here to read the morning newsletter

© 2020 Napean LLC. All rights reserved.

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.