Frieze expands into London's luxury hotels

The Frieze Art Fair has been a key part of the European art scene since 2003. Originally contained within Regent's Park, and covering just 5,500 square meters, its influence has grown steadily, expanding into New York and Los Angeles. It is now London's leading contemporary art show, according to Forbes.

Hawaii's first animal hospital and luxury resort opens

The full-service animal hospital and luxury resort sits on a 6,500-square-foot campus and will include services such as pet boarding, daycare, and grooming, in addition to features such as online video monitoring, which allows pet owners to check in on their animals while they're away. Pet owners can also opt to spoil their furry friends by signing them up for amenities such as massages, pedicures and lilikoi- or pineapple-scented baths, per Pacific Business Wire.
