

NEWS BRIEFS

Saint Laurent, Ritz-Carlton, Fendi and Roger Vivier – Live news

November 27, 2019

Reopening the four fountains that Fendi paid to restore: At the ceremony, standing left to right, Maria Vittoria Marini Clarelli, Rome's superintendent of cultural heritage; Serge Brunschwig, CEO of Fendi; and Virginia Raggi, mayor of Rome. Image courtesy of Fendi

By STAFF REPORTS

Luxury Daily's live news from Nov. 26:

Saint Laurent's latest installment of Shanghai film invites self-introspection

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

Running two minutes and forty-four seconds, the short movie is a story set in Shanghai with dreamy sequences, sharp contrasts and fluid timelines.

Please click here to read the entire article

Ritz-Carlton takes Fashion Santa to four cities as part of holiday charity push

The Ritz-Carlton will support the return of the Fashion Santa Holiday Tour to four cities, with holiday fashion personality and model Paul Mason playing a key role.

Please click here to read the entire article

Fendi restoration of 4 historic Roman fountains concludes

The Fendi for Fountains project restored the historic fountains of Gianicolo, Mos, Ninfeo del Pincio and Peschier. The philanthropic move marks similar efforts by Italian footwear maker Tod's financial support for spiffing up Rome's Colosseum.

Please click here to read the entire article

Roger Vivier celebrates holiday romance with brand ambassador

French footwear label Roger Vivier is ushering in the holiday spirit with the help of some furry friends.

Please click here to read the entire article

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.