

NEWS BRIEFS

Hong Kong retail, Fendi, Shandong Ruyi and Jaguar Land Rover News briefs

January 6, 2020

China's Shandong Ruyi controls a majority stake in Bally. Image credit: Bally

By STAFF REPORTS

Please be aware the clippings below may require a paid subscription to the listed media outlet to read an article in full.

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

Today in luxury:

Hong Kong retail sales drop 23.6pc in November as protests persist

Hong Kong retail sales extended their free-fall in November as months of anti-government protests scared off tourists, hitting spending and threatening the survival of small businesses, reports Reuters.

Click here to read the entire article on Reuters

In a first, Fendi taps Nick Knight for spring ads

In September, Silvia Venturini Fendi presented her first solo ready-to-wear effort for Fendi after the death of Karl Lagerfeld, who famously also photographed the brand's advertising campaigns. As a consequence of his passing, the spring campaign also marks a new chapter for the storied house, as it was for the first time photographed by Nick Knight, says Women's Wear Daily.

Click here to read the entire article on Women's Wear Daily

What is happening at the LVMH of China?

With unpaid invoices and mounting debt, Shandong Ruyi is paying the price for rapid expansion, according to Vogue Business.

Click here to read the entire article on Vogue Business

Tata petitions India top court against verdict to rehire Mistry

Tata Group filed a petition in India's Supreme Court, seeking to quash a panel's order that directed owners of the Jaguar Land Rover carmaker to rehire the chairman it fired in 2016, prolonging India's biggest corporate feud, says Bloomberg.

Click here to read the entire article on Bloomberg

© 2020 Napean LLC. All rights reserved.

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.