

NEWS BRIEFS

Day's wrap: Bentley, Walpole sustainability, Gucci and Kering

February 12, 2020

Kering brand Bottega Veneta's back, with a 2.2 percent growth in 2019. Image credit: Bottega Veneta; Photo credit: Tyrone Lebon

By LUXURY DAILY NEWS SERVICE

Luxury Daily's live news:

Bentley Motors to unveil new Bacalar grand tourer in 3 weeks

The Bacalar will be made from ethically sourced materials, with a design inspired by Bentley's EXP 100 GT centenary concept car.

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

Please click here to read the article

40 British luxury brands commit to Walpole's sustainability manifesto

The number is a vast increase from the initial six Harrods, Burberry, dunhill, Johnstons of Elgin, Mulberry and The Savoy that signed the pledge to follow sustainable practices in their companies.

Please click here to read the article

Gucci goes back to 70s well with campaign for GG Psychedelic Collection

From the cloakroom to the dance floor, the new campaign shot by Jordan Hemingway captures the capsule collection designed by Gucci creative director Alessandro Michele in an imaginary club scene from the 1970s.

Please click here to read the article

Kering shows 13.3pc jump to \$17.3B in revenue last year

Gucci comparable sales were up 13.3 percent and Saint Laurent comparable revenue grew 14.4 percent. The success of its new collections saw Bottega Veneta return to growth with a 2.2 percent comparable jump in sales.

Please click here to read the article

Morning's lead: Self-gifting is emerging Valentine's Day trend for luxury shoppers on Pinterest

Please click here to read the morning's newsletter

© 2020 Napean LLC. All rights reserved.

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.