

NEWS BRIEFS

Capri Holdings, Chaumet, Hennessy, La Perla and luxury real estate

August 6, 2020

Michael Kors revenues dropped by more than 67 percent. Image credit: Michael Kors

By LUXURY DAILY NEWS SERVICE

Luxury Daily's live news:

Capri Holdings revenues tumble more than 65pc as uncertainty continues

Fashion group Capri Holdings saw its revenues fall 66.5 percent in the first quarter of fiscal 2021, joining a growing number of luxury groups that have seen significant losses due to the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic.

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

Please click here to read the article

Chaumet balances refinement, whimsy in Bee My Love campaign

French jeweler Chaumet has tapped South Korean actress Song Hye Kyo for the Maison's newest Bee My Love campaign.

Please click here to read the article

Hennessy celebrates cognac anniversary with special tastings

LVMH-owned cognac house Hennessy is celebrating the 150th anniversary of one its most enduring spirits with a unique tasting experience and exhibition.

Please click here to read the article

La Perla launches new collection with influencers' help

Italian lingerie label La Perla is encouraging women to appreciate everyday luxuries with the launch of its first washable silk collection.

Please click here to read the article

Affluents expect to purchase new homes, with new motivations after COVID

One in four people believe they are more likely to move in the next 12 months as a result of the coronavirus pandemic and continued fallout, according to a new survey from Knight Frank.

Please click here to read the article

© 2020 Napean LLC. All rights reserved.

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.