

NEWS BRIEFS

Day's wrap: Rolls-Royce, Marriott Bonvoy, Bentley and Bonhams

October 8, 2020

Rolls-Royce rebranded its Arts Programme as Muse. Image courtesy of Roll-Royce

By LUXURY DAILY NEWS SERVICE

Luxury Daily's live news for Oct. 8:

Rolls-Royce teases reveal of Dream Commission finalists

British automaker Rolls-Royce is set to announce the winners of its inaugural Dream Commission, a biennial prize honoring creativity in the media of moving image.

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

Please click here to read the article

Marriott Bonvoy celebrates wonders of travel in online promotions

Hotel group Marriott International's Bonvoy rewards program is launching a weeklong celebration of travel to engage consumers who are eager to resume trips after months of lockdowns.

Please click here to read the article

Bentley achieves latest ISO energy, environmental management ISO standards

British automaker Bentley Motors is reaffirming its commitment to carbon neutrality with a reaccreditation against the energy and environmental management standards.

Please click here to read the article

Bonhams appoints luxury veteran Hans-Kristian Hoejsgaard as chairman

Bonhams has named Hans-Kristian Hoejsgaard chairman, filling the role once held by Bruno Vinciguerra, who was appointed global CEO of the auction house in February.

Please click here to read the article

Wealth of world's richest takes hit amid pandemic: Wealth-X

The economic impact of the coronavirus pandemic has dramatically thinned the ranks of the world's ultra wealthy, despite a rebound triggered by government financial aid, according to this year's Wealth-X Ultra Wealth report.

Please click here to read the article

Please click here to read the morning newsletter

© 2020 Napean LLC. All rights reserved.

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.