

NEWS BRIEFS

Day's wrap: LVMH, Tiffany & Co., London Fashion Week, Cartier and Rebag

October 29, 2020

The Tiffany T1 collection is showing positive signs of market acceptance. Image credit: Tiffany & Co.

By LUXURY DAILY NEWS SERVICE

Luxury Daily's live news for Oct. 29:

Tiffany & Co., LVMH agree to discounted acquisition deal

French luxury conglomerate LVMH Mot Hennessy Louis Vuitton is ready to tie the knot with U.S. jeweler Tiffany & Co., after the two companies agreed to change the price of the acquisition.

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

Please click here to read the article

British Fashion Council sticks with digital, genderless LWF for early 2021

The British Fashion Council has announced that the next iteration of London Fashion Week will stay virtual, in light of the evolving coronavirus crisis.

Please click here to read the article

Cartier builds on efforts to preserve biodiversity

International yachting company IYC is highlighting the Bahamas as a top destination to spend the holiday season.

Please click here to read the article

Rebag moves into watches, jewelry space as secondhand grows

Resale platform Rebag is expanding its offerings, allowing shoppers to buy and sell watches and fine jewelry.

Please click here to read the article

Retailers showcasing comfort, empathy to draw early holiday shoppers

High-end retailers are preparing for a holiday season like no other, as many in the United States remain weary about in-store shopping and consumer confidence dips in light of the coronavirus pandemic.

Please click here to read the article

Please click here to read the morning newsletter

© 2020 Napean LLC. All rights reserved.

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.