

NEWS BRIEFS

Day's wrap: Yoox Net-A-Porter, Valentino, Bentley and Roger Dubuis

November 13, 2020

Net-A-Porter has partnered with The Prince's Foundation to launch a sustainable capsule collection as part of The Modern Artisan project. Image courtesy of YNAP

By LUXURY DAILY NEWS SERVICE

Luxury Daily's live news for Nov. 13:

Yoox Net-A-Porter Group reveals sustainable collection from royal partnership

Online retailer Yoox Net-A-Porter has partnered with The Prince's Foundation to launch a sustainable capsule collection as part of The Modern Artisan project.

Please click here to read the article

Valentino decorates its animated maison for the holidays

Italian fashion house Valentino is giving its Chez Maison a festive holiday makeover.

Please click here to read the article

Bentley asks artists to draw inspiration from its upgraded SUV British automaker Bentley is launching a digital art series with works inspired by its new Bentayga.

Please click here to read the article

Roger Dubuis goes on wild ride with Excalibur Aventador S Swiss watchmaker Roger Dubuis tapped a French filmmaker to take its latest Excalibur Aventador for a spin.

Please click here to read the article

Luxury market in Asia will remain resilient in 2021: Agility

As Asia continues to steadily recover from the coronavirus pandemic, luxury brands that continue to invest in the market should be cautiously optimistic about these efforts paying off into 2021.

Please click here to read the article

Please click here to read the morning newsletter

© 2020 Napean LLC. All rights reserved.

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.