

NEWS BRIEFS

Cond Nast, Marriott, Bentley, Rimowa and Selfridges

May 12, 2021

Versha Sharma, incoming editor in chief of Teen Vogue. Image credit: Cond Nast

By LUXURY DAILY NEWS SERVICE

Luxury Daily's live news for May 11:

Cond Nast appoints new Teen Vogue editor

Media group Cond Nast has appointed Versha Sharma as the editor in chief of Teen Vogue.

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

Please click here to read the article

Marriott reports $84M in Q1 revenue, as demand climbs

Hospitality group Marriott International recorded a 26.4 percent decrease in operating income for the first quarter of 2021, largely due to the COVID-19 pandemic and efforts to contain the virus.

Please click here to read the article

Bentley introduces kids bicycle to collection

British automaker Bentley Motors is expanding its product offerings for children with the new Bentley Balance Bike.

Please click here to read the article

Rimowa launches first NFT art auction

LVMH-owned German luggage brand Rimowa has become the first luxury travel brand to create a collection of conceptual non-fungible tokens (NFTs) designed for the metaverse.

Please click here to read the article

Selfridges expands services to include weddings

British department store chain Selfridges is launching a unique wedding experience for couples looking for a non-traditional ceremony.

Please click here to read the article

© 2021 Napean LLC. All rights reserved.

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.