St. Regis Bermuda Resort is located in the town of St. George, a UNESCO World heritage site, at the heart of the sands and clear water of St. Catherine's beach. Channeling the spirit of leisure travel, the St. Regis Bermuda resort offers luxurious and elegant accommodations and amenities, including its signature butler service, to help travelers experience the ultimate island escape.

"Bermuda has long served as an exclusive destination for the global luminaries, making it the ideal location to debut a glamorous new St. Regis resort," said George Fleck, vice president and global brand leader for St. Regis Hotels & Resorts, in a statement. "Much like the island, St. Regis is steeped in rich history, offering a storied past and exciting future,"

"The St. Regis brand's founding family, the Astors, spent time on this beautiful island more than a century ago," he said. "Now, the House of Astor's celebrated traditions and rituals will bring this visionary spirit, avant-garde style and impeccable service back to Bermuda where our address is your muse."

St. Regis Bermuda

The resort draws inspiration from the local geography, weaving the island spirit throughout its architecture. The property has 120 guestrooms, including 21 suites and an ultra-luxury residential development with two- and three-bedroom residences.

Each guestroom includes a private balcony designed for expansive ocean views. St. Regis Bermuda also features both an adult and a family pool where guests can have the options for private cabanas.

The St. Regis Spa is also waiting for guests, with a comprehensive menu of personalized treatments. Other accommodations include a 24-hour fitness center and a children's club for younger guests.

On property restaurants include Lina, an all-day option whose name is an ode to the nickname of the St. Regis founding patroness, Mrs. Caroline Astor. Guest can also enjoy Champagne, other beverages and small appetizers at St. Regis Bar.

The property also includes Five Forts Golf Course, a challenging and expansive 18-hole course and 10,989 square feet of event space for bespoke events and celebrations. A casino, the brand's first, is slated to open later this year.

"The St. Regis Bermuda Resort promises to be an enchanted beachfront oasis for guests and local luminaries alike," said Jan Vanhaelewyn, general manager at The St. Regis Bermuda Resort, in a statement. "With bespoke service, exquisite design, outstanding culinary venues, the historic Five Forts Golf Course, and more than a dash of glamour, we hope to inspire and contribute to the local hospitality landscape and help elevate luxury in this iconic leisure destination."

In 2019, St. Regis Hotels & Resorts brought its brand and butler service to Hong Kong for the first time with the opening of a residential-style property. The St. Regis Hong Kong is located in Wan Chai, nearby to the city's Convention and Exhibition Center and a short distance from Central and Victoria Peak (see story).
