

NEWS BRIEFS

Gucci, Capri Holdings, Facebook, Audi and St. Regis

May 27, 2021

Show or hide? Users can now decide if they want to keep their like counts visible. Image credit: Facebook

By LUXURY DAILY NEWS SERVICE

Luxury Daily's live news for May 26:

Gucci releases first NFT at Christie's auction

Italian fashion label Gucci is getting in on the NFT game with its first offering at a current Christie's auction.

Please click here to read the article

Capri Holdings sees 13pc increase in retail sales in Q4

Fashion group Capri Holdings is seeing improvement, even after reporting that revenue was flat in the fourth quarter of 2021 compared to last year.

Please click here to read the article

Facebook, Instagram officially offer users ability to hide like counts

Social tech giant Facebook is letting users more options in deciding how they would like to experience its platforms.

Please click here to read the article

Audi of America adds to senior communications team

Automaker Audi of America has appointed a new senior vice president and chief communications officer.

Please click here to read the article

St. Regis opens first property in Bermuda

Hospitality group Marriott International is debuting its first luxury brand property in Bermuda with the opening of a new St. Regis Hotels & Resorts.

Please click here to read the article

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.