

NEWS BRIEFS

Kering, Mot Hennessy, Tiffany, Hearst and Four Seasons

October 20, 2021

Gucci saw positive growth among local consumers in North America and Western Europe. Image courtesy of Gucci

By LUXURY DAILY NEWS SERVICE

Luxury Daily's live news for Oct. 19:

Kering reports solid 12pc growth in Q3

French fashion conglomerate Kering saw double-digit growth during the third quarter of 2021 with group revenue of $4.8 billion, at the current exchange rate up more than 12 percent compared to Q3 2020.

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

Please click here to read the article

Mot Hennessy opens sustainability research center

LVMH's wine and spirits division Mot Hennessy has inaugurated the Robert-Jean de Vog Research Center, a science research facility devoted to sustainability.

Please click here to read the article

Tiffany unveils new Beyonc, Jay-Z installment

LVMH's Tiffany & Co. has released the next segment of its ongoing "About Love" campaign featuring global music icons Beyonc Knowles-Carter and Sean Carter, known professionally as Beyonc and Jay-Z.

Please click here to read the article

Hearst names Jonathan Wright new international president

Media publishing company Hearst Magazines has appointed Jonathan Wright as president of Hearst Magazines International.

Please click here to read the article

Four Seasons Maui unveils lifestyle brand campaign

Four Seasons Resort Maui at Wailea has teamed up with renowned fashion photographer Pamela Hanson to release a new lifestyle resort campaign.

Please click here to read the article

© 2021 Napean LLC. All rights reserved.

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.