

NEWS BRIEFS

Day's wrap: Burberry, Gucci, Balmain, Bentley and 1stDibs

November 11, 2021

Korean actor Mina Shin for Gucci. Image courtesy of Gucci

By LUXURY DAILY NEWS SERVICE

Luxury Daily's live news for Nov. 11:

Burberry revenues return to pre-pandemic levels

British fashion house Burberry is reporting that its revenue has reached pre-pandemic levels in the first half of its financial year.

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

Please click here to read the article

Gucci names Mina Shin, Jungjae Lee new global ambassadors

Italian fashion label Gucci is announcing two new global brand ambassadors, Korean actors Mina Shin and Jungjae Lee.

Please click here to read the article

Balmain partners with Netflix on Western-inspired collection

French fashion label Balmain is collaborating with global video streaming platform Netflix on collection modeled after a new film.

Please click here to read the article

Bentley renews carbon neutrality certification at Crewe

British automaker Bentley Motors is renewing its carbon neutrality certification for operations, further emphasizing its appeal as a sustainable marque.

Please click here to read the article

1stDibs launches new auction service, curated collection

Online marketplace 1stDibs is launching an auction vertical to engage consumers with different buying preferences.

Please click here to read the article

Future of luxury investment: it is a seller's market

The luxury sector has seen a recent uptick in merger and acquisition activity as well as innovative investments, and experts believe consolidation will continue and conglomerates will grow stronger.

Please click here to read the article

Please click here to read the morning newsletter

© 2021 Napean LLC. All rights reserved.

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.