

NEWS BRIEFS

Richemont, Bottega Veneta, Audi, McLaren, Burberry and Missoni

November 16, 2021

The Imagined Landscapes pop-up in Jeju Island, Korea. Image credit: Burberry

---

By LUXURY DAILY NEWS SERVICE

Luxury Daily's live news for Nov. 15:

Richemont exceeds pre-pandemic sales in Americas, Asia in H1

Swiss luxury conglomerate Richemont recorded double-digit sales increases across all business categories, surpassing pre-pandemic levels, for the six-month period ended Sept. 30.

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

Please click here to read the article

Bottega Veneta appoints new creative director

Kering-owned Italian fashion house Bottega Veneta has promoted ready-to-wear design director Matthieu Blazy as its new creative director.

Please click here to read the article

McLaren disputes reports of sale to Audi

British automaker McLaren is denying media reports that it has been sold to German automaker Audi.

Please click here to read the article

Burberry merges heritage, innovation with new pop-up

British fashion label Burberry is highlighting the relationship between nature and technology with a new immersive pop-up experience.

Please click here to read the article

Missoni taps Supreme for latest streetwear collaboration

Italian fashion label Missoni is the latest luxury brand to partner with streetwear brand Supreme for added exposure.

Please click here to read the article

---

© 2021 Napean LLC. All rights reserved.

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.