

NEWS BRIEFS

Day's wrap: Fendi, Secoo, Mot & Chandon, BMW Group and Beverly Hills

December 7, 2021

The Fendi winter capsule has inspired a styling challenge on Drest. Image credit: Fendi

By LUXURY DAILY NEWS SERVICE

Luxury Daily's live news for Dec. 7:

Fendi digitizes winter capsule with Drest mobile app

Italy's Fendi is touting its winter capsule collection through a special collaboration with fashion styling game Drest.

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

Please click here to read the article

What Secoo's decline says about China's luxury market today

With China remaining a bright spot for luxury brands over the past 18 months and luxury ecommerce booming as brands went all-in and convenience-minded consumers increased online spending, Secoo theoretically should have been well-positioned to benefit.

Please click here to read the article

Mot & Chandon launches local agroecology program

LVMH-owned Champagne brand Mot & Chandon is continuing its support of biodiversity with a new initiative in its home region.

Please click here to read the article

BMW Group reaches electric milestone

Germany's BMW Group has delivered its one-millionth electrified vehicle as it makes progress on its electromobility push.

Please click here to read the article

Beverly Hills expands content collaborations in social push

The city of Beverly Hills, CA is enlisting a group of creators to develop content featuring the destination in an appeal to younger travelers.

Please click here to read the article

Please click here to read the morning newsletter

© 2021 Napean LLC. All rights reserved.

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.