

NEWS BRIEFS

Day's wrap: Dior, Harvey Nichols, auto sales and COVID-19 update

December 29, 2021

American rapper Travis Scott's Cactus Jack collection has been indefinitely postponed out of respect to victims who died at his November festival. Image courtesy of Dior

By LUXURY DAILY NEWS SERVICE

Luxury Daily's live news for Dec. 29:

Dior halts Travis Scott collection, citing respect for Astroworld victims

French fashion house Dior is indefinitely postponing the release of its Cactus Jack collaboration with American rapper Travis Scott.

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

Please click here to read the article

Citing COVID-19 impacts, Harvey Nichols sees significant losses in 2021

British department store chain Harvey Nichols recorded sales decreases throughout the fiscal year 2021, with the losses ostensibly stemming from several factors.

Please click here to read the article

December new car sales decrease, automotive still sees record sales

New vehicle sales for December 2021 are expected to rank lower than December 2020 sales, according to a new joint forecast from J.D. Power and LMC Automotive.

Please click here to read the article

Apprehension builds as COVID-19 cases break daily records worldwide

COVID-19 cases continue to grow across the world, as many countries are seeing record daily infections reported during the Omnicron surge.

Please click here to read the article

Announcing digital-only Luxury FirstLook 2022 on Jan. 13: Register now!

Register today for Luxury FirstLook 2022 digital conference on Jan. 13.

Please click here to register

Please click here to read the morning newsletter

© 2021 Napean LLC. All rights reserved.

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.