

TRAVEL AND HOSPITALITY

St. Regis unveils Gilded Age' package

February 2, 2022

The exterior of The St. Regis' landmark New York hotel. Image credit: St. Regis New York

By LUXURY DAILY NEWS SERVICE

Marriott's St. Regis New York has announced a new "Gilded Age" package, an exclusive stay celebrating the new television series.

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

A period drama set in late 19th century New York, "The Gilded Age" premiered on HBO on Jan. 24 and follows the era's elite and those trying to navigate immense economic change. St. Regis' Gilded Age package invites guests to live like turn-of-the-century American royalty.

19th-century luxury

Caroline Astor, the matriarch of The St. Regis New York's founding family, is an integral part of the series as the leader of New York's elite society known as The Four Hundred.

The hotel's Gilded Age package invites guests to roam the same halls frequented by Ms. Astor, as well as a stay in one of the hotel's Grand Suites.

Additionally, guests may enjoy dinner for two at Astor Court with access to a specially curated Gilded Age menu inspired by dishes featured on dinner menus from the hotel's archives.

Astor Court dining room. Image courtesy of St. Regis New York

Guests will also receive Dear Annabelle stationary, St. Regis butler service and a bottle of Champagne.

Located on the corner of 5th Avenue and 55th Street, next to Central Park, the St. Regis is walking distance from the historic homes featured on the HBO series.

The package starts at $5,200 per night.

To celebrate the Brooklyn Museum's "Christian Dior: Designer of Dreams" exhibition in October 2021, the St. Regis debuted a limited-time overnight experience in New York the J'Adore New York getaway package.

The package included a one-night stay in the St. Regis New York Dior suite, two tickets and roundtrip transportation to the Brooklyn Museum, breakfast for two, complimentary champagne and a vanity of Dior cosmetics (see story).

© 2022 Napean LLC. All rights reserved.

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.