

NEWS BRIEFS

Day's wrap: Hugo Boss, Marriott, BMW and Sephora

March 11, 2022

□

Hugo Boss reports a successful 2021 fiscal year, looks to a bright 2022. Image credit: Hugo Boss

By LUXURY DAILY NEWS SERVICE

Luxury Daily's live news for March 11:

Hugo Boss returns to pre-pandemic levels with 43 percent growth

German fashion house Hugo Boss has optimistically reported its full-year earnings for fiscal year 2021, which reached $2.78 billion euros, or $3.05 billion at current exchange rates.

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

Please click here to read the article

Marriott leans into power of TikTok

Hospitality group Marriott International's Bonvoy rewards program is looking for three TikTok connoisseurs with a passion for travel to become the brand's official TikTok correspondents in 2022.

Please click here to read the article

BMW Group acquires Alpina

German auto manufacturer BMW Group is expanding its portfolio through the acquisition of Buchloe-based automaker Alpina.

Please click here to read the article

Sephora debuts on Shipt marketplace

LVMH-owned beauty retailer Sephora has partnered with same-day shopping and delivery company Shipt, becoming the first large-scale beauty retailer on the platform.

Please click here to read the article

Please click here to read the morning newsletter

© 2022 Napean LLC. All rights reserved.

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.