

NEWS BRIEFS

Day's wrap: Richemont, Dior, CFDA, luxury fashion shows and vacation homes

April 13, 2022

Richemont's Chlo earned a B Corp certification last year, and now the conglomerate pushes forward with sustainability milestones. Image credit: Chlo

By LUXURY DAILY NEWS SERVICE

Luxury Daily's live news for April 13:

Richemont ranks top 2pc in global ESG

Swiss luxury conglomerate Richemont has received a Sustainalytics ESG score of 10.7, ranking in the top 2 percent of 14,784 companies worldwide.

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

Dior taps aesthetician as beauty ambassador

France's Dior is underscoring the importance of skincare by tapping influencer and aesthetician Sean Garrette as its newest beauty ambassador.

CFDA enters the metaverse with educational program

The Council of Fashion Designers of America (CFDA) has announced its first steps into Web3 with its first metaverse and NFT partnership and education program.

Fashion highlights heritage, design with upcoming shows

As the fashion industry prepares to showcase upcoming collections, brands such as Valentino, Gucci and Louis Vuitton are spotlighting history and exceptional design through noteworthy locales.

Second-home boom is dwindling: Redfin

The pandemic-induced surge in vacation home purchases is starting to slow significantly, as buyers are holding off on second homes amid rising mortgage rates and loan fees.

Please click here to read the morning newsletter
