Situated on the Gulf of Mexico in southwest Florida, the property is developed by The Ronto Group and real estate investment firm Wheelock Street Capital. Rosewood Residences Naples will cover more than five acres and boast nearly 500 feet of beachfront.

"Rosewood Hotels & Resorts is delighted to be a part of the expanding residential market in Naples, Florida," said Brad Berry, vice president of global residential development at Rosewood Hotel Group, in a statement.

"Rosewood Residences prides itself on providing its residents with resort-style living paired with best-in-class, luxury lifestyle experiences," he said. "Through the development of Rosewood Residences Naples, we look forward to growing our distinctive collection of ultra-luxury homes situated in both dynamic cities and resort destinations."

New development

Rosewood Residences Naples will boast ocean views, concierge amenities and other service offerings Rosewood guests have become accustomed to.

Rosewood has launched a new summer program to get travelers excited

With less than 50 units and an average interior size of 5,300 square feet per unit, each residence will include its own private elevator entry, balconies, walk-in closets and specially crafted kitchens.

Rosewood Residences Naples will aim to embody a resident club-like atmosphere featuring a fitness center, spa and steam and sauna facilities.

Residents may also enjoy an interactive game room as well as the lounge and on-premises sports bar. Outdoor amenities consist of two pools, each with food and beverage options, one heated spa and poolside cabanas.

To get travelers excited for the summer, Rosewood recently launched Summer Immerse, a collection of activities and adventures designed to help guests go beyond a standard vacation. The collection has been thoughtfully curated for travelers who are open to embracing new levels of exploration (see story).
