

NEWS BRIEFS

Day's wrap: Versace, Kelley Blue Book, Dolce & Gabbana and Pomellato

September 13, 2022

An image from Versace's "Making of a Goddess" campaign film. Image credit: Versace

By LUXURY DAILY NEWS SERVICE

Luxury Daily's live news for Sep. 13:

Versace vamps up asking prices in bid to match peers

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

Italian fashion label Versace has made the acquisition of its items a more costly endeavor as the brand raises prices, falling in line with other luxury contemporaries like Louis Vuitton and Bottega Veneta.

Kelley Blue Book reports rising vehicle prices despite limited stock

Vehicle valuation company Kelley Blue Book is reporting that the average price paid for a new vehicle in the U.S. during August has topped records for the fifth straight month, passing July's high at over $48,000.

Dolce & Gabbana unveils room wear collection in seaside film

Italian fashion house Dolce & Gabbana has released a new campaign film for its D&G Casa collection bathrobes.

Pomellato centers cultural heritage in new capsule collection

Italian jewelry designer Pomellato has collaborated with international nonprofit Venetian Heritage and funded the restoration of the Epistle Ambo at San Mark's Basilica.

Please click here to read the morning newsletter