

NEWS BRIEFS

Day's wrap: Cond Nast, Christie's, Van Cleef & Arpels, Coty and Tiffany & Co.

October 7, 2022

Ann Getty was known for her eclectic taste in rare and fine artifacts along with her close personal relationship with Oscar de la Renta. Image credit: Christie's

By LUXURY DAILY NEWS SERVICE

Luxury Daily's live news for Oct. 7:

Popular Cond Nast Traveler podcast is leading luxury's new era with empathy

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

Cond Nast Traveler's marquee broadcast is back with a new season, as Luxury Daily presents an exclusive first look.

Christie's to auction Getty collection spanning dynasties

Auction house Christie's is selling off items from Ann and Gordon Getty's estate, beginning on Oct. 10 and ending on Oct. 25.

Van Cleef & Arpels centralizes meticulous movement in avante garde exhibition

French jeweler Van Cleef & Arpels is fusing high jewelry savoir faire with dynamism to achieve its latest "The Art of Movement: Van Cleef & Arpels, Living Moments, Eternal Forms" exhibition.

Coty defines fearless kindness' as path forward

U.S. beauty group Coty dually announced a new corporate identity and company purpose on Oct. 6.

Tiffany & Co., Beyonc host 'Club Renaissance' dance party in Paris

U.S. jeweler Tiffany & Co. is continuing the excitement from its "Lose Yourself in Love" campaign with Beyonc, culminating the week with a co-hosted Club Renaissance Party.

Please click here to read the morning newsletter