

NEWS BRIEFS

Day's wrap: Neiman Marcus, Longines, Tiffany & Co., Saks Fifth Avenue and Luxury Women to Watch 2023

October 12, 2022

NMG's FY22 fiscal success was fueled by the company's 3,000-plus sales associates, who focus on cultivating genuine client relationships. Image courtesy of Neiman Marcus Group

By LUXURY DAILY NEWS SERVICE

Luxury Daily's live news for Oct. 12:

70pc of Neiman Marcus locations reach highest revenues in over a decade

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

U.S. retailer Neiman Marcus Group is closing out the fiscal year on a positive note, as evidenced by its latest earnings report.

Longines debuts first certified chronometer watch

Swiss watchmaker Longines is concluding its 190th anniversary year with the brand's first tachometer chronograph watch.

Tiffany & Co. revives Elsa Peretti Bean design collection

U.S. jeweler Tiffany & Co. is reintroducing designs from its late and longtime collaborator.

Saks Fifth Avenue champions mental health with fall fundraiser

French crystal maker Baccarat's namesake hotel line is debuting a second location in Italy's Eternal City.

Introducing Luxury Women to Watch 2023

Luxury Daily annually honors smart women executives who show the potential to make a difference next year in the luxury business.

Please click here to read the morning newsletter

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.