

NEWS BRIEFS

Dior, Valentino, NYC labor law, Ipsos, State of the Luxury Market Survey 2023 and Luxury Women to Watch 2023

October 31, 2022

British actor Anya Taylor-Joy exudes a certain joie de vivre as she stars in Dior's holiday 2022 film. Image credit: Dior

By LUXURY DAILY NEWS SERVICE

Luxury Daily's live news for Oct. 28:

Dior unveils magical motif for holiday 2022 campaign

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

French fashion house Dior released this year's holiday gift collection with a "magical constellation motif" by Italian artist Pietro Ruffo and an ad campaign helmed by a video starring actress Anya Taylor-Joy.

Valentino pays homage to founder with largest exhibition of garments in Qatar

A new exhibition of Maison Valentino garments celebrating the fashion house's long history and haute couture craftsmanship opened Oct. 28 in Doha, Qatar, marking the largest such initiative for the brand.

New York City luxury businesses face pay transparency law

Effective Nov. 1, New York City-based companies will be required to pair job postings with salary ranges, per legislation passed at the top of this year.

US consumer economic confidence subdued

Results of Ipsos' latest consumer survey were released last week, showing a somewhat dim sentiment about the economy among Americans.

Invitation to participate: State of the Luxury Market 2023 Survey

Luxury Daily invites you to participate in the State of the Luxury Market 2023 Survey. All respondents will receive the executive summary of the report, plus a complimentary copy of a new Unity Marketing trend report, "HENRYs in Recession: How Luxury Brands Can Prepare."

Introducing Luxury Women to Watch 2023

Luxury Daily annually honors smart women executives who show the potential to make a difference next year in the luxury business.

Please click here to read the morning newsletter

© 2022 Napean LLC. All rights reserved.

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.