

NEWS BRIEFS

Day's wrap: Bentley, Four Seasons, Neiman Marcus and Lanvin Group

December 19, 2022

Bentley releases miniatures of sold-out vehicles. Image credit: Bentley

By LUXURY DAILY NEWS SERVICE

Luxury Daily's live news for Dec. 19

Bentley takes inspiration from sold-out models, releases matching miniature collectibles

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

British luxury car brand Bentley is making a few new additions to its portfolio with the release of miniature models on a 1:43 scale of cars that have sold out since introduction.

Four Seasons opens new Saudi, Bahrain properties, signaling Middle East expansion

Luxury hospitality group Four Seasons is expanding further into the Middle East with the opening of two residences in Bahrain Bay and Jeddah, Saudi Arabia.

Neiman Marcus Group earns favorable sustainability score, highlights ESG disclosure

American luxury retail conglomerate Neiman Marcus Group (NMG) has received high ranks for its sustainability efforts.

Lanvin Group goes live on NYSE, takes North American market

Shanghai-based luxury fashion firm Lanvin Group has been given a ticker on the New York Stock Exchange, designated "LANV."

Please click here to read the morning newsletter