

NEWS BRIEFS

Day's wrap: Christie's, LVMH and Fendi, CFDA, IHG, Alfa Romeo and Stoli Group

February 27, 2023

A member of the maison builds out "The Dawn of Romanity," a 2019 art exhibition from Fendi. Image courtesy of Fendi

By LUXURY DAILY NEWS SERVICE

Luxury Daily's live news for Feb. 27:

Christie's luxury division names new global managing director

British auction house Christie's is announcing a new, high-ranking luxury appointment.

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

LVMH, Fendi debut award dedicated to Italian artisanry

In honor of ancestral approaches to "savoir-faire," French luxury conglomerate LVMH is kicking off this year's "Maestri d'Eccellenza" award round.

CFDA celebrates 10-year initiative anniversary with grant renewal announcement

The Council of Fashion Designers of America (CFDA) is recognizing its longest-standing public-private partnership.

IHG continues support of human-trafficking survivors by hosting forum in Atlanta

Hospitality group InterContinental Hotels Group continues to bring attention to the plight of human trafficking by giving survivors a voice.

Alfa Romeo models top Editor's Choice list for sixth consecutive year

Italian automaker Alfa Romeo's Quadrifoglio model is still Editor's Choice, according to Car and Driver magazine.

Stoli Group continues food relief efforts in Ukraine with limited-edition release

Global spirits brand Stoli Group is helping to ensure that those affected by the sociopolitical crisis in Ukraine receive access to food supplies.

Please click here to read the morning newsletter