

NEWS BRIEFS

Richemont, Emirates, Ferrari and Macy's

April 3, 2023

Specially trained Emirates employees will wear a pin bearing a sunflower (the internationally recognized emblem of hidden disabilities) to make themselves visible to passengers with Autism. Image credit: Emirates

By LUXURY DAILY NEWS SERVICE

Luxury Daily's live news for March 31:

Richemont launches global theft prevention database in fight against luxury jewelry loss

Swiss luxury conglomerate Richemont has created a global digital platform that addresses the growing problem of watch and jewelry theft.

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

Emirates host cabin crew, ground staff trainings for World Autism Day

Dubai, U.A.E.-based airline Emirates is making efforts to equalize accommodations across the board.

Ferrari supports Italian youth with latest iteration of reforestation project

Italian automaker Ferrari is helping an area of Italy with an unsavory past to turn over a new leaf.

Macy's CEO announces succession plan after four decades with department store

U.S. retailer Macy's Inc. is starting anew as longtime company CEO Jeff Gennette transitions into retirement.

Please click here to read the morning newsletter

© 2023 Napean LLC. All rights reserved.

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.