The addition of Ambiente, a landscape property in Sedona, Arizona, the Grand Hotel Excelsior Vittoria, a seaside stay in the Gulf of Naples, Italy and The Ranch, a fitness, health and wellness retreat with three newly-recruited locations worldwide, brings five new offerings to the company's hotel partner portfolio. Lending members unparalleled access to the finest accommodations, plus a dedicated Elevated Lifestyle Preferred Hotel Concierge team for seamless, complimentary bookings, Jet Linx's program currently provides clients with complimentary upgrades, exclusive rates, extra amenities and assistance at 85 partnering hotels around the globe.

"The continued growth of the Elevated Lifestyle Preferred Hotel Program comes as part of our Five-Star promise to our Jet Card Members and Aircraft Owners," said Jamie Walker, president and CEO of Jet Linx, in a statement.

"Refining and improving offerings and experiences beyond the tarmac comes as part of the elevated experience that Jet Linx provides, and our plane-to-pillow hotel program remains completely unique within the private aviation industry."

Working worldwide

Launched in 2020, Jet Linx's member-exclusive program, of which the new hotels are now a part, spans 20 countries. From the desert of Arizona to the seaside of Naples, Italy, the announcement opens up new destinations for the Jet Linx community.

Sedona's Ambiente property is an eco-hotel. With three acres of red-rock views and Coconino National Forest land, as well as farm-to-table dining, guests can enjoy immersive experiences in nature.

The hotel's rooms feature floor-to-ceiling amber-colored glass, mimicking the Arizonan sunsets from the inside. Externally, a private trailhead to 200 miles of forested paths exists nearby.

On an international basis, Jet Linx clients can now take in views of the famed Mount Vesuvius and peer out over the Bay of Naples from The Grand Hotel Excelsior Vittoria. The property itself boasts a five-acre garden and citrus orchard, a boutique spa and outdoor swimming pool, and, among other things, close connections to the much sought-after Amalfi Coast, as well as historic archaeological sites of Pompeii.

In alignment with rising demand for wellness-centric high-end hospitality opportunities (see story), Jet Linx's The Elevated Lifestyle Preferred Hotel Program now also encompasses a trio of wellness lodgings from The Ranch, a fitness retreat entity.

Locations include The Ranch Malibu in California and The Ranch Italy at Palazzo Fiuggi in Fiuggi, Italy each respective location has a limited capacity of 25 guests, tailoring experiences for travelers desiring a health-conscious getaway.

The Ranch Hudson Valley is also to be opened in the fall of 2023 and will be listed among Jet Linx's offerings.

"These stunning properties exemplify ultra-luxury service, offer world-class amenities, and provide exceptional experiences in truly unique settings, like Jet Linx," said Christof Pignet, vice president of client experience at Jet Linx, in a statement.

"It is an honor and privilege to welcome all aboard our Elevated Lifestyle Preferred Hotel Program, and we are looking forward to finding ways to surprise and delight our mutual clients, together."
