

NEWS BRIEFS

Day's wrap: Luxury and pension protests, Louis Vuitton, Rolls-Royce and David Yurman

April 14, 2023

Entitled "Crafting Dreams," a new pop-up salon concept located in Los Angeles is placing one-of-a-kind house goods on display all month long. Image courtesy of Louis Vuitton

By LUXURY DAILY NEWS SERVICE

Luxury Daily's live news for April 14:

Pension protestors storm LVMH's Paris headquarters

French pension protestors stormed LVMH's Paris headquarters Thursday morning, following news that the French luxury conglomerate's share price had rose 4.6 percent in early trading to hit a record high of 875 ($965).

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

Louis Vuitton salon guests get private Milan Design Week sneak peek

French fashion house Louis Vuitton is granting select clients access to a curated collection of the maison's most exclusive mtiers.

Rolls-Royce releases special-edition Ghost, in Manchester-inspired first

British automaker Rolls-Royce is taking influence from a city of historical resonance for the marque.

Celebrity ambassadorship at David Yurman yields charitable support for NYC youth

U.S. jeweler David Yurman is continuing a dedicated philanthropic relationship with both house ambassador and actress Scarlett Johansson and, for the second year in a row, NYC-based not-for-profit organization Lower Eastside Girls Club.

Please click here to read the morning newsletter