

JEWELRY

Cartier names Amal Clooney to new 'Voices' collective

April 21, 2023

Lebanese-British lawyer Amal Clooney is now armed with the inaugural title, in light of the philanthropist's charitable track record. Image credit: Cartier

By LUXURY DAILY NEWS SERVICE

French jewelry maison Cartier is joining a famed human rights activist in pursuit of justice.

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

Lebanese-British lawyer Amal Clooney has been tapped as the first representative of the company's new charitable collective. With the announcement, Ms. Clooney joins "Cartier Voices," which aims to convene influential figures known for their philanthropic contributions in the interest of catalyzing change across the globe.

"I am honored to contribute to the Cartier Voices," said Ms. Clooney, in a statement.

"I look forward to building an enduring partnership founded on the values shared between myself and the Maison."

Winning women

Cartier's latest partner has been a human rights lawyer for two decades, working worldwide to represent survivors of mass genocide, political imprisonment and sexual violence.

With her husband, American actor George Clooney, she cofounded the Clooney Foundation for Justice, an organization dedicated to protecting victims of human rights abuses across 40 countries.

A trusted figure of justice around the world, Ms. Clooney serves as a Special Advisor to the Prosecutor of the International Criminal Court, and was recently named TIME Magazine's Woman of the Year in 2022.

Taking place in Paris, the leader will join Cartier's Women's Initiative Annual Awards Ceremony on May 10, 2023, as an event speaker.

It's our pleasure to announce the participation of human rights lawyer Amal Clooney to our 2023 Awards Ceremony. Defending victims of injustice for the last two decades, Amal is the epitome of driving change in global systems. #ForcesForGood

Learn more: <https://t.co/wQipN9IDvY> pic.twitter.com/7ijzFyHo1H

Cartier Women's Initiative (@CartierAwards) April 21, 2023

Continuing the brand's 17-year-old initiative and historic tradition of recognizing powerful women by honoring 33 recipients of the brand's Impact Awards (see story), Ms. Clooney's remarks will precede the speeches of other female changemakers.

Cyrille Vigneron, CEO of Cartier, is scheduled to present alongside French actor Mlanie Laurent, Lebanese actor and director Nadine Labaki, American actor Yara Shahidi and Wingee Sampaio, global program director with the Cartier Women's Initiative.

Danish-British broadcaster Sandi Toksvig, founder of the Women's Equality Party, will host.

© 2023 Napean LLC. All rights reserved.

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.