

NEWS BRIEFS

Day's wrap: Giorgio Armani, Selfridges, Diageo and David Yurman

May 16, 2023

During Mr. Armani's degree ceremony, his global success was applauded, his strong work ethic and his company's reputation for high quality were highlighted by multiple speakers. Image credit: Giorgio Armani

By LUXURY DAILY NEWS SERVICE

Luxury Daily's live news for May 16:

Giorgio Armani granted honorary doctoral degree from hometown university

Italian fashion house Giorgio Armani is celebrating the academic achievements of its founder.

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

Selfridges tests circular retail concept shop

With the launch of the finance-themed shopping experience "The Stock Market," British department store Selfridges is looking to help clients keep wardrobe items current.

Diageo-backed documentary, Spirit,' debuts on Prime Video

The bartending competition featured in the film is Diageo's World Class event, which pits the best bartenders in the world against each other.

David Yurman donates crystal vein to American Museum of Natural History

U.S. jeweler David Yurman has donated a 70-foot vein of clear crystal quartz to the newly-renovated American Museum of Natural History.

Please click here to read the morning newsletter