

NEWS BRIEFS

Day's wrap: Neiman Marcus, Bugatti, cosmetic toxin legislature and Italian floods

May 18, 2023

Bugatti plans to bring its bold and innovative style of design to the residential market for the first time. Image credit: Binghatti

By LUXURY DAILY NEWS SERVICE

Luxury Daily's live news for May 17:

Neiman Marcus NorthPark installation houses Givenchy exclusives for summer

The partnership is part of Neiman Marcus' strategy of giving customers unique shopping experiences wherever they choose to shop, whether it be in-store or on the go.

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

First-ever Bugatti Residences' to debut in Dubai

French automaker Bugatti is poised to bring a premiere experience to its customers, calling its new housing community, "L'Art de Vivre."

Italian luxury automakers pledge support to flooding relief efforts

Porsche and Ferrari are making donations and postponing popular events in solidarity with the victims of an ecological crisis.

Washington state passes ban on toxins in cosmetics

Going into effect in 2025, the legislation marks a first-of-its-kind moment for U.S. beauty markets.

Please click here to read the morning newsletter

© 2023 Napean LLC. All rights reserved.

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.