Modern pieces mix treasured motifs and contemporary design. With contrasting colors and signature silhouettes, the hues of the nation's national flag also make an appearance, further tying selections to Paris.

All of these elements are explored in a new campaign film, out now.

The brand ambassador is the star of Louis Vuitton's latest release

Throughout the roughly 60-second clip, Ms. Stone wanders through stone structures affixed upon city streets with a carefree attitude.

"Ceremony" by 1980s rock band New Order rings off as centuries-old sites appear on camera. All the while, Ms. Stone laughs to herself, spinning as she makes her way along her route.

The celebrity was first appointed by Louis Vuitton as a brand ambassador in 2017 (see story), having since starred in a slew of campaigns for the house (see story), now adding another classic to the list.
