French fashion house Louis Vuitton is making fine china a permanent fixture.

Quietly launched last month, a set of porcelain dishes with blue-and-white prints anchors the brand's first tableware collection. The maison's monogram flower motif centers the new range, now available online and in select Louis Vuitton stores worldwide.

Savoir faire-to-table

The Monogram Flower Tile collection integrates a familiar design.

Crafted from Limoges porcelain and made in France, plates and bowls employ Louis Vuitton's classic motif patterns in blue, applying subtle watercolor effects against a bright white background. Two additional styles complete this season's release.
